Quiz 18 – Gems

1. What is a Gem?
   (This was discussed in lecture "Intro to Ruby Gems")
   a. A shiny rock used in jewelry.
   b. A container for liquids.
   c. A library/package which we can add to a Ruby project for extra functionality.
   d. A Ruby code style guide.

   Correct Answer: Option c – A library/package which we can add to a Ruby project for extra functionality.
   Explanation:
   Option a – Incorrect answer. Please try again.
   Option b – Incorrect answer. Please try again.
   Option c – Good job!
   Option d - Incorrect answer. Please try again.

2. What is the primary purpose of the Faker Gem?
   (This was discussed in lecture "Intro to Ruby Gems")
   a. To create fake data.
   b. To find mistakes in your Ruby code.
   c. To format your code.
   d. To encrypt user data.

   Correct Answer: Option a – To create fake data.
   Explanation:
   Option a – Good job!
   Option b – Incorrect answer. Please try again.
   Option c – Incorrect answer. Please try again.
   Option d – Incorrect answer. Please try again.

3. What is a Gemfile?
   (This was discussed in lecture "Installing Faker Gem")
   a. A configuration file for storing database credentials.
   b. A script that runs the main application.
   c. An auction listing of precious diamonds.
   d. A file to specify and manage the Gems for your Ruby application.

   Correct Answer: Option d - A file to specify and manage the Gems for your Ruby application.
   Explanation:
   Option a – Incorrect answer. Please try again.
   Option b – Incorrect answer. Please try again.
   Option c – Incorrect answer. Please try again.
   Option d – Good job!